DEBTORS' MOTION, PURSUANT TO SECTION 362 OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE, FOR AN ORDER MODIFYING THE AUTOMATIC
STAY TO ALLOW ADVANCEMENT UNDER DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS
INSURANCE POLICY BY FEDERAL INSURANCE COMPANY (CHUBB)

TO THE HONORABLE JAMES M. PECK
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. ("LBHI") and its affiliated debtors in the above-referenced chapter 11 cases, as debtors and debtors in possession (together, the "Debtors" and, collectively with their non-debtor affiliates, "Lehman"), file this Motion and respectfully represent:

Preliminary Statement

1. On February 26, 2009, the Debtors filed a motion [Docket No. 2949] (the "Prior Motion") for modification of the automatic stay provided for under section 362(a) of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), to the extent applicable, to remove any impediments to payment by the Debtors' primary third party insurers of directors and officers coverage and fiduciary liability coverage of defense costs and fees that current or former directors, officers, and employees of the Debtors' were incurring as defendants in ongoing federal securities lawsuits and regulatory and other investigations. By order, dated March 25, 2009 [Docket No. 3220] (the "Prior Order"), the Court granted the Prior Motion.

2. The Debtors' primary directors and officers liability insurance policy, issued by XL Specialty Insurance Company ("XL"), provides up to $20 million in coverage. Subsequent to the entry of the Prior Order, XL began funding defense costs incurred by the insured individuals. Given the current state of the legal proceedings, however, the Debtors expect that the $20 million of primary coverage may be exhausted by December 2009 or in early 2010. Accordingly, the individual insureds will need to look to the first layer of excess insurance coverage that was procured pre-petition by the Debtors for the benefit of their directors, officers, and employees, which provides up to $15 million in coverage in excess of $20 million.

3. As they did with the primary insurers, by this Motion, the Debtors seek to assure Federal Insurance Company (Chubb) – the first level excess third party insurer – that it can make payment of directors and officers coverage of defense costs and fees without concern that, if the automatic stay is otherwise applicable, it is violating the automatic stay.

4. As was the case with XL, confirming Federal Insurance Company's (Chubb) ability to pay such defense costs and fees is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates and creditors because, inter alia, it will avoid the possible collateral estoppel effect on the Debtors that could result if the individuals' inability to defend themselves were to give rise to judgments and findings that impacted direct claims against the Debtors. Furthermore, the interests of the Debtors' estates, if any, in the proceeds of the applicable insurance policy is expressly subordinate to the interest of the individual insureds. Specifically, the applicable insurance policy provides that the Debtors' have a right to the insurance proceeds only after the insured individuals are fully reimbursed for any "Loss," including defense costs. Thus, granting the relief requested by this motion is unlikely to have any adverse effect on the Debtors' estates and creditors.

Background

5. Commencing on September 15, 2008 and periodically thereafter (as applicable, the "Commencement Date"), LBHI and certain of its subsidiaries commenced with this Court voluntary cases under the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors' chapter 11 cases have been consolidated for procedural purposes only and are being jointly administered pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"). The Debtors are authorized to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. On September 17, 2008, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the "U.S. Trustee") appointed the statutory committee of unsecured creditors pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Creditors' Committee").

7. On September 19, 2008, a proceeding was commenced under the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970 ("SIPA") with respect to Lehman Brothers Inc. ("LBI"). A trustee appointed under SIPA (the "SIPC Trustee") is administering LBI's estate.

8. On January 19, 2009, the U.S. Trustee appointed Anton R. Valukas as examiner in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (the "Examiner") and by order, dated January 20, 2009 [Docket No. 2583] the Court approved the U.S. Trustee's appointment of the Examiner.

Jurisdiction

9. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to consider and determine this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).

Lehman's Business

10. Prior to the events leading up to these chapter 11 cases, Lehman was the fourth largest investment bank in the United States. For more than 150 years, Lehman has been a leader in the global financial markets by serving the financial needs of corporations, governmental units, institutional clients and individuals worldwide.

11. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, capital structures, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is contained in the Affidavit of Ian T. Lowitt Pursuant to Rule 1007-2 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York in Support of First-Day Motions and Applications, filed on September 15, 2008 [Docket No. 2].

Relief Requested

12. The Debtors seek the entry of an order granting relief from the automatic stay provided for in section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent that it applies, to allow payments and/or advancements by Federal Insurance Company (Chubb) ("Chubb") of defense costs that are, or will become, owing to the Individual Defendants (as defined below) under the Policy (as defined below). The Debtors further request that the Court waive the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3) and direct that the order granting the requested relief be effective immediately.

The Debtors' Directors and Officers Liability Insurance Policy

13. Pursuant to their advancement and indemnification obligations expressed in their by-laws and certificate of incorporation, the Debtors purchased primary and excess directors and officers (“D&O”) liability insurance, which provides coverage for the Debtors’ current and former officer, directors, and employees in connection with civil, criminal, regulatory and other actions and investigations.

14. For Claims¹ made against the Individual Defendants during the period from May 16, 2007 to May 16, 2008, the Debtors purchased a primary Policy from XL Specialty Insurance Company (the “2007-2008 D&O Policy” or the “Policy”).² During this period, the Debtors also purchased excess coverage from a variety of other carriers of up to $250 million in the aggregate. The excess coverage are all “follow form” policies subject to additional independent terms and conditions. That is, the terms and conditions of the excess coverage are governed by the 2007-2008 D&O Policy, but each excess insurer’s (the “Excess Insurers”) obligations are subject to certain additional terms, such as a cap on coverage and are triggered only after all of the preceding layers of coverage have been exhausted. For example, the first layer of excess coverage, insured by Chubb, provides for coverage of $15 million in excess of $20 million or between $20 million and $35 million.

15. Subject to the terms, conditions, limitations and exclusions of the Policy, when triggered, Chubb covers Loss (i.e., defense costs, expenses, settlements, and judgments) for Claims made during the Policy Period arising from Wrongful Acts allegedly committed by the Individual Defendants in their capacity as directors, officers or employees of LBHI and its subsidiaries. Coverage under Side A provision of the 2007-2008 D&O Policy is immediately available to Insured Persons, which includes certain of the Debtors’ present and former officers,

¹ Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Policy.

² A copy of the 2007-2008 D&O Policy along with the additional terms and conditions of the Chubb coverage is annexed hereto as Exhibit “A.”

directors, and employees for any Losses associated with Claims made under the Policy that is not otherwise advanced or indemnified by the Debtors by reason of their financial insolvency.

16. Furthermore, endorsement 22 of the 2007-2008 D&O Policy contains a “Priority of Payments” provision, which provides that when competing claims for coverage under both Insuring Agreement (A) for non-indemnifiable loss, as described above, and Insuring Agreement (B) are made under the 2007-2008 D&O Policy, “the Insurer shall pay that Loss, if any, which the Insurer may be liable to pay on behalf of the Insured Persons under Insuring Agreement (A)... .” Thus, the 2007-2008 D&O Policy and each of the excess Policies, by virtue of Insuring Agreement A and the Priority of Payments endorsement, provides for the immediate payment of the Individual Defendants’ defense costs and expenses ahead of any payment that may be made to the Debtors.

The Legal Proceedings

17. Certain former and current directors, officers, and employees of the Debtors (collectively, the “Individual Defendants”) are defendants in one or more of multiple civil actions brought on behalf of purported classes and individuals and are within the scope of certain criminal, regulatory or other investigations (collectively, the “Legal Proceedings”) described below. Neither LBHI or any of the other Debtors is named as a defendant in any of the Legal Proceedings.

18. Both prior to and after the collapse of the Lehman enterprise in September 2008, various securities actions were commenced against certain officers and directors in both federal and state court. Many of these actions assert, among other claims, violations of sections 10(b) and 20(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and sections 11, 12 and 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1933 (the “Securities Act”), and arise from various alleged wrongful actions of certain Individual Defendants in connection with securities issued by LBHI. Most of these actions have been consolidated at least for pre-trial purposes before the Honorable Lewis Kaplan in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. Other such actions have not yet been consolidated and/or await action from the Judicial Panel on Multi-District Litigation. A second set of actions similarly alleging violations of sections 11, 12, and 15 of the Securities Act arise from alleged wrongful actions of certain of the Individual Defendants in connection with the plaintiffs' purchase of mortgage-backed securities. These actions have been consolidated and are also before Judge Kaplan. A third action relates to the purchase of auction-rate securities, and alleges violations of section 12(a)(2) of the Securities Act and various state laws, and similarly arises from various wrongful actions of certain of the Individual Defendants. This action is pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California.

19. Additionally, both the United States Department of Justice (by and through the United States Attorneys Offices for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, and for the District of New Jersey) as well as the United States Securities and Exchange Commission and the New Jersey Bureau of Securities, have commenced formal grand jury and regulatory investigations concerning the circumstances surrounding the collapse of the Lehman enterprise and have issued various document requests and subpoenas to both the Debtors and various Individual Defendants.

20. In connection with the Legal Proceedings, the Individual Defendants have incurred and will continue to incur defense costs and fees. Prior to the Commencement Date, in the ordinary course of business and pursuant to the terms of their by-laws, the Debtors indemnified and covered their officers and directors for defense costs incurred in legal proceedings. Subsequent to the Commencement Date, however, the Debtors have been unable to continue to advance defense costs to the Individual Defendants. That is why the Debtors sought the Prior Order so that the Individual Defendants would have access to at least $20 million. As noted above, however, the $20 million primary coverage may soon be exhausted, and the next layer of coverage by Chubb may be triggered. Accordingly, the Debtors are seeking the requested relief herein so as to ensure that the Individual Defendants will continue to have access to funding of additional defense costs under, and consistent with, the terms of the Chubb Policy.

Cause Exists to Grant the Relief Requested

A. The Proceeds Are Not Property of the Estate

21. Section 362(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code provides for an automatic stay of any action seeking to obtain possession or exercise control over property of the bankruptcy estate. It is well settled that insurance policies are property of the estate and covered by the automatic stay provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. See MacArthur Co. v. Johns-Manville Corp., 837 F.2d 89 (2d Cir 1988). However, courts have distinguished between ownership of a policy and ownership of the proceeds of a policy. While courts have not been uniform in their analysis, where a policy provides for payment only to a third party – such as payments to officers and directors under an executive insurance policy – or where the debtor has a right of coverage or indemnification, but such right is hypothetical or speculative, courts have held that the proceeds of such policy are not property of the bankruptcy estate. See, e.g., In re Adelphia Commc'ns Corp., 298 B.R. 49, 53 (S.D.N.Y. 2003) (holding that insurance proceeds were not property of the estate where it had not been suggested that debtors had made any payment for which they may be entitled to indemnification under policy or that any such payments were then contemplated); In re Allied Digital Techs., Corp., 306 B.R. 505, 510 (Bankr. D. Del. 2004) (holding that proceeds of D&O insurance policy were not property of the estate where debtor's indemnification right under the policy was speculative and direct coverage of debtor under policy was hypothetical); In re La. World Exposition, Inc., 832 F.2d 1391, 1401 (5th Cir. 1987) (holding that proceeds of a D&O policy belonged only to the officers and directors and, therefore, were not property of the estate); In re World Health Alternatives, Inc., 369 B.R. 805, 809 (Bankr. D. Del. 2007) (when proceeds of a policy are payable to the directors and officers and not the estate, the proceeds are not property of the estate); See In re First Cent. Fin. Corp., 238 B.R. 9, 18 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1999) (holding that circumstances that may give rise to entity coverage were highly remote and therefore proceeds were not property of estate).

22. In determining whether proceeds are property of the estate, courts review the “language and scope of the policy at issue.” Allied Digital, 306 B.R. at 509. See also In re CyberMedica, Inc., 280 B.R. 12, 16 (Bankr. D. Mass. 2002); In re Jones, 179 B.R. 450, 455 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1995) (respective rights of debtors and non-debtors to insurance proceeds “must be ascertained by reference to the parties’ contractual rights pursuant to the interpretation of the pertinent contractual provisions under applicable state law”).

23. Here, the Policy contains an unambiguous priority of payments endorsement that expressly subordinates the rights of the Debtors to proceeds payable under the Policy to the rights of the Individual Defendants. The priority of payment endorsements is an enforceable contractual provision and should be upheld for the benefit of the Individual Defendants as intended. See In re Enron Corp., Case No. 01-16034 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Apr. 11, 2002) [Docket No. 3278] (holding that priority of payment provision was an enforceable contractual right).³ In addition, because none of the Debtors are named defendants in the Legal Proceedings, and have only been requested to produce certain documents in connection with the government or other investigations, the likelihood that the Debtors may require coverage under the Policy is remote. As the court explained in In re Laminare Kingdom LLC:

[T]he Court believes the depletion of proceeds to pay the [c]osts of [d]efense [i]ncurred by the officers and directors] does not diminish the protection afforded the estate's assets under the terms of the Policy. The Policy's "Priority of Payments Endorsement" specifically requires that the proceeds be used first to pay non-indemnifiable loss for which coverage is provided under Coverage A of this Policy, which coverage includes the [officer's and director's costs of defense]. Then, only after such payments are made, and only if proceeds remain after payment of such [c]osts of [d]efense, will the Trustee or the estate be paid any proceeds. Thus, under the language of the Policy itself, the estate has only a contingent, residual interest in the Policy's proceeds; and, payment of the proceeds in accordance with the "Priority of Payments Endorsement" does not diminish the protection the Policy affords the estate, as such protection is only available after the [c]osts of [d]efense are paid.

No. 07-10279-BKC-AJC, 2008 WL 1766637, at *3 (Bankr. S.D. Fla. Mar. 13, 2008).

24. Consistent with the purpose of such policies, the Debtors purchased the Policy primarily to provide insurance coverage to their officers and directors, including the Individual Defendants. See In re First Cent. Fin. Corp., 238 B.R. 9, 16 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1999) ("In essence and at its core, a D&O Policy remains a safeguard of officer and director interests and not a vehicle for corporate protection."). The Debtors' speculative rights to any residual proceeds, which are subject to an express contractual subordination provision, should not alter the conclusion that the proceeds should not constitute property of the Debtors' estates.

B. Cause Exists to Modify the Automatic Stay, to the Extent
That it Applies, to Allow Payment of Defense Costs Under the Policy.

25. Even if the proceeds from the Policy are determined to be property of the estate, "cause" exists under section 362(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code to modify the automatic stay to allow the payment of defense costs under the Policy. It is not uncommon for courts to grant stay relief to allow payment of defense costs or settlement costs to directors and officers, especially when there is no evidence that direct coverage of the debtor will be necessary. See Allied Digital, 306 B.R. at 513.

26. Allowing Chubb to advance defense costs and fees to the Individual Defendants will, in fact, benefit the Debtors' estates. The Legal Proceedings are highly complex. If the Individual Defendants are not adequately represented, it is foreseeable that a finding of wrongdoing or liability against the Individual Defendants may be used, or attempted to be used, to judicially prejudice or prosecute claims against the Debtors. Granting the requested relief will also alleviate the Individual Defendants' concern that they will personally be liable for their own defense costs.

27. Additionally, the Debtors believe that they have an obligation under their by-laws to advance the defense costs and fees incurred by the Individual Defendants. In connection with the Legal Proceedings, the Individual Defendants have and will continue to incur significant defense costs, which, if unsatisfied, may potentially be asserted by some or all of the Individual Defendants against the Debtors' estates. Moreover, to the extent the Individual Defendants suffer adverse judgments that are not paid from the proceeds of the Policy due to the enforcement of the automatic stay, the Individual Defendants may seek to assert indemnification claims against the estates for such amounts. Consequently, coverage of the Individual Defendants under the Policy will reduce or eliminate the claims that the Individual Defendants could assert against the estates.

28. Modifying the automatic stay will not harm the Debtors' estates. As explained above, the Debtors' rights to the proceeds are contractually subordinated to the rights of the Individual Defendants pursuant to the priority of payments endorsements. In addition, at this time, the need for coverage is speculative given that the Debtors are not named as defendants in the Legal Proceedings, have incurred minimal costs in connection with the documents subpoenaed in the government investigations, and have not made advancements to the Individual Defendants during the chapter 11 cases for their defense costs.

29. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully submit that there are no legal impediments to the direct payment or advancement by Chubb under the Policy to the Individual Defendants for their costs of defense. Alternatively, if this Court finds that the Debtors have some interest in the proceeds of the Policy, the Debtors submit that any such interest is nominal and in any event cannot be determined until the Individual Defendants' losses have been quantified and paid. Advancing the Individual Defendants' defense costs pursuant to the Policy is necessary to minimize those losses. Accordingly, cause exists to modify the automatic stay pursuant to section 362(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent it applies, to allow Chubb to immediately commence payment of outstanding and ongoing defense costs incurred by the Individual Defendants.

30. It should be noted that in making this motion neither the Debtors, the Individual Defendants nor Chubb are waiving any of their respective rights under the Policy. In addition, the Debtors are not seeking an advance determination of Chubb's obligation to pay any particular expense or claim of the Individual Defendants. Rather, the Debtors seek only the entry of an order modifying the automatic stay, to the extent applicable, to allow Chubb to fulfill its obligations, whatever they may be, to pay defense costs and expenses of the Individual Defendants under the terms of the Chubb Policy, including amounts incurred both pre and post-petition, if and when they arise.

31. Pursuant to the Prior Order, this Court has granted identical relief with respect to the primary insurer under this Policy whose rights and obligations vis-à-vis the Debtors and Individual Defendants are governed by the same terms and conditions.

Notice

32. No trustee has been appointed in these cases. The Debtors have served notice of this Motion in accordance with the procedures set forth in the amended order entered on February 13, 2009 governing case management and administrative procedures for these cases [Docket No. 2837] on (i) the U.S. Trustee; (ii) the attorneys for the Creditors' Committee; (iii) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (iv) the Internal Revenue Service; (v) the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York; (vi) all parties who have requested notice in these chapter 11 cases; and (vii) Chubb. The Debtors submit that no other or further notice need be provided.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request that the Court grant the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as it deems just and proper.

POLICYHOLDER DISCLOSURE

NOTICE OF TERRORISM INSURANCE COVERAGE

Coverage for acts of terrorism is already included in your current policy. You should know that, effective November 26, 2002, under your existing coverage, any losses caused by certified acts of terrorism would be partially reimbursed by the United States under a formula established by federal law. Under this formula, the United States pays 90% of covered terrorism losses exceeding the statutorily established deductible paid by the insurance company providing the coverage. The portion of your annual premium that is attributable to coverage for acts of terrorism is: $ waived. Any premium waiver is only valid for the current Policy Period.

However, the applicable federal law described above is set to expire on December 31, 2007 and it is unclear if such statutory provision will be extended past such date. In the event such federal law expires without such extension, any losses caused by certified acts of terrorism would not be partially reimbursed by the United States.

I ACKNOWLEDGE THAT I HAVE BEEN NOTIFIED THAT UNDER THE TERRORISM RISK INSURANCE ACT OF 2002, ANY LOSSES CAUSED BY CERTIFIED ACTS OF TERRORISM UNDER MY POLICY COVERAGE WILL BE PARTIALLY REIMBURSED BY THE UNITED STATES AND I HAVE BEEN NOTIFIED OF THE AMOUNT OF MY PREMIUM ATTRIBUTABLE TO SUCH COVERAGE.

Any reimbursement in the case of (F)(1), (2), or (3) above will only occur if ninety (90) days after the date of dismissal, stipulation, final judgment of no liability is obtained and only if:

- (a) the same Securities Claim (or a Securities Claim containing Interrelated Wrongful Acts) is not brought again within that time; and
- (b) the Insured provides the Insurer with an Undertaking in a form acceptable to the Insurer that such reimbursement of the applicable Retention(s) will be paid back to the Insurer in the event the Securities Claim (or a Securities Claim containing Interrelated Wrongful Acts) is brought after the ninety (90) day period.

V. DEFENSE, SETTLEMENT AND ALLOCATION OF LOSS

- (A) It shall be the duty of the Insured and not the duty of the Insurer to defend any Claim under this Policy.
- (B) No Insured may incur any Defense Expenses or admit liability for, make any settlement offer with respect to, or settle any Claim without the Insurer's consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld.
- (C) Upon the written request of an Insured, the Insurer will advance Defense Expenses on a current basis in excess of the applicable Retention, if any, before the disposition of the Claim for which this policy provides coverage. As a condition of the advancement of Defense Expenses, the Insurer may require a written undertaking, in a form satisfactory to the Insurer, which will guarantee the repayment of any Loss including Defense Expenses paid to or on behalf of the Insured if it is finally determined that the Loss incurred is not covered under this Policy.
- (D) If both Loss covered by this Policy and Loss not covered by this Policy are incurred, either because a Claim made against the Insured contains both covered and uncovered matters, or because a Claim is made against both the Insured and others (including the Company for Claims other than Securities Claims) not insured under this Policy, the Insured and the Insurer will use their best efforts to determine a fair and appropriate allocation of Loss between that portion of Loss that is covered under this Policy and that portion of Loss that is not covered under this Policy. Additionally, the Insured and the Insurer agree that in determining a fair and appropriate allocation of Loss, the parties will take into account the relative legal and financial exposures of, and relative benefits obtained in connection with the defense and/or settlement of the Claim by, the Insured and others.

- (E) In the event that an agreement cannot be reached between the Insurer and the Insured as to an allocation of Loss, as described in (D) above, then the Insurer shall advance that portion of Loss which the Insured and the Insurer agree is not in dispute until a final amount is agreed upon or determined pursuant to the provisions of this Policy and applicable law.

VI. GENERAL CONDITIONS

(A) NOTICE

- (1) As a condition precedent to any right to payment under this Policy with respect to any Claim, the Insured shall give written notice to the Insurer of any Claim as soon as practicable after it is first made.
- (2) If, during the Policy Period, the Insured first becomes aware of a specific Wrongful Act, Company Wrongful Act or Employment Practices Wrongful Act and if, during the Policy Period, the Insured:
- (a) provides the Insurer with written notice of the specific Wrongful Act, Company Wrongful Act or Employment Practices Wrongful Act, the consequences which have resulted or may result therefrom (including but not limited to actual or potential damages), the identities of the potential claimants, the circumstances by which the Insured first became aware of such Wrongful Act, Company Wrongful Act or Employment Practices Wrongful Act; and
- (b) requests coverage under this Policy for any subsequently resulting Claim for such Wrongful Act, Company Wrongful Act or Employment Practices Wrongful Act;

then any Claim subsequently made arising out of such Wrongful Act, Company Wrongful Act or Employment Practices Wrongful Act will be treated as if it had been first made during the Policy Period.

- (3) All notices under GENERAL CONDITIONS (A)(1) and (2) must be sent by certified mail or the equivalent to the address set forth in ITEM 7 of the Declarations; Attention: Claim Department.

(B) INTERRELATED CLAIMS

All Claims arising from the same Interrelated Wrongful Acts shall be deemed to constitute a single Claim and shall be deemed to have been made at the earliest of the time at which the earliest such Claim is made or deemed to have been made pursuant to GENERAL CONDITIONS (A)(1) above or GENERAL CONDITIONS (A)(2), if applicable.

(C) OTHER INSURANCE AND SERVICE IN CONNECTION WITH NON-PROFIT ENTITIES AND JOINT VENTURES

- (1) All Loss payable under this Policy will be specifically excess of and will not contribute with any other insurance, including but not limited to any insurance under which there is a duty to defend, unless such other insurance is specifically excess of this Policy. This Policy will not be subject to the terms of any other insurance policy.

- (2) All coverage under this Policy for Loss from Claims made against the Insured Persons while acting in their capacity as a director, officer, trustee, regent or governor of a Non-Profit Entity or persons occupying elected or appointed positions having fiduciary, supervisory or managerial duties and responsibilities comparable to those of the Insured Persons of the Company, regardless of the name or title by which such position is designated, of a Joint Venture will be specifically excess of and will not contribute with, any other insurance or indemnification available to such Insured Person from such Non-Profit Entity or Joint Venture by reason of their service as such.

(D) MERGERS AND ACQUISITIONS (CHANGES IN EXPOSURE OR CONTROL)

- (1) If during the Policy Period, the Company acquires any assets, acquires a Subsidiary, or acquires any entity by merger, consolidation or otherwise, or assumes any liability of another entity, coverage shall be provided for any Loss involving a Claim for a Wrongful Act, Company Wrongful Act or Employment Practices Wrongful Act occurring after the consummation of the transaction.
- (2) If, however, by reason of the transaction (or series of transactions) described in (D)(1) above, the entity, assets, Subsidiary or liabilities so acquired or so assumed, exceed thirty five percent (35%) of the total assets or liabilities of the Company, as represented in the Company's most recent audited consolidated financial statements, coverage under this Policy shall be provided for a period of ninety (90) days for any Loss involving a Claim for a Wrongful Act, Company Wrongful Act, or Employment Practices Wrongful Act that occurred after the transaction has been consummated. Coverage beyond the ninety (90) day period will be provided only if:
- (a) the Insurer receives written notice containing full details of the transaction(s); and
- (b) the Insurer at its sole discretion, agrees to provide such additional coverage upon such terms, conditions, limitations, and additional premium that it deems appropriate.
- (3) With respect to the acquisition, assumption, merger, consolidation or otherwise of any entity, asset, Subsidiary or liability as described in (D)(1) and (2) above, there will be no coverage available under this Policy for Claims made against the acquired, assumed, merged, or consolidated entity, asset, Subsidiary, liability, or Insured Person for a Wrongful Act, Company Wrongful Act or Employment Practices Wrongful Act committed any time during which such entity, asset, liability or Subsidiary is not an Insured.
- (4) If during the Policy Period any entity ceases to be a Subsidiary, the coverage provided under this Policy shall continue to apply to the Insured Persons who, because of their service with such Subsidiary, were covered under this Policy but only with respect to a Claim for a Wrongful Act, Company Wrongful Act or Employment Practices Wrongful Act that occurred or allegedly occurred prior to the time such Subsidiary ceased to be a Subsidiary of the Company.
- (5) If, during the Policy Period, there is a Change In Control, the coverage provided under this Policy shall continue to apply but only with respect to a Claim against an Insured for a Wrongful Act, Company Wrongful Act or Employment Practices Wrongful Act committed or allegedly committed up to the time of the Change In Control; and
- (a) coverage will cease with respect to any Claim for a Wrongful Act, Company Wrongful Act or Employment Practices Wrongful Act committed subsequent to the Change In Control; and
- (b) the entire premium for the Policy will be deemed to be fully earned immediately upon the consummation of a Change In Control.

(E) CANCELLATION AND RENEWAL OF COVERAGE

- (1) Except for the nonpayment of premium, as set forth in (E)(2) below, the Parent Company has the exclusive right to cancel this Policy. Cancellation may be effected by mailing to the Insurer written notice when such cancellation shall be effective, provided the date of cancellation is not later than the Expiration Date set forth in ITEM 2 of the Declarations. In such event, the Insurer shall retain the customary short rate portion of the earned premium. Return or tender of the unearned premium is not a condition of cancellation.
- (2) The Insurer may only cancel this Policy for nonpayment of premium. The Insurer will provide not less than twenty (20) days written notice stating the reason for cancellation and when the Policy will be canceled. Notice of cancellation will be sent to the Parent Company and the agent of record for the Insured, if applicable.
- (3) The Insurer is under no obligation to renew this Policy upon its expiration. Once the Insurer chooses to non-renew this Policy, the Insurer will deliver or mail to the Parent Company written notice stating such at least sixty (60) days before the Expiration Date set forth in ITEM 2 of the Declarations.

(F) OPTIONAL EXTENSION PERIOD

- (1) If either the Parent Company or the Insurer does not renew this Policy, the Parent Company shall have the right, upon payment of an additional premium set forth in ITEM 5 of the Declarations, to an extension of the coverage provided by this Policy with respect only to any Claim first made during the period of time set forth in ITEM 5 of the Declarations after the Policy Expiration Date, but only with respect to a Wrongful Act, Company Wrongful Act, or Employment Practices Wrongful Act, occurring prior to the Policy Expiration Date.
- (2) As a condition precedent to the right to purchase the Optional Extension Period the total premium for this Policy must have been paid in full. The right of the Parent Company to purchase the Optional Extension Period will be immediately terminated if the Insurer does not receive written notice by the Parent Company advising it wishes to purchase the Optional Extension Period together with full payment of the premium for the Optional Extension Period within thirty (30) days after the Policy Expiration Date.
- (3) If the Parent Company elects to purchase the Optional Extension Period as set forth in (F)(1) and (2) above, the entire premium for the Optional Extension Period will be deemed to be fully earned at the Inception Date for the Optional Extension Period.
- (4) The purchase of the Optional Extension Period will not in any way increase the Limit Of Liability set forth in ITEM 3 of the Declarations, and the Limit of Liability with respect to Claims made during the Optional Extension Period shall be part of and not in addition to the Limit of Liability for all Claims made during the Policy Period.

(G) ASSISTANCE, COOPERATION AND SUBROGATION

- (1) The Insured agrees to provide the Insurer with all information, assistance and cooperation that the Insurer may reasonably request, and further agree that they will do nothing which in any way increases the Insurer's exposure under this Policy or in any way prejudices the Insurer's potential or actual rights of recovery.
- (2) In the event of any payment under this Policy, the Insurer shall be subrogated to all of the potential or actual rights of recovery of the Insured. The Insured shall execute all papers required and will do everything necessary to secure such rights including but not limited to the execution of such documents as are necessary to enable the insurer to effectively bring suit in their name, and will provide all other assistance and cooperation which the Insurer may reasonably require.

(H) EXHAUSTION

If the Insurer's Limit of Liability as set forth in ITEM 3 of the Declarations is exhausted by the payment of Loss, the premium as set forth in ITEM 8 of the Declarations will be fully earned, all obligations of the Insurer under this Policy will be completely fulfilled and exhausted, and the Insurer will have no further obligations of any kind whatsoever under this Policy.

(I) REPRESENTATION CLAUSE

The Insured represents that the statements and particulars contained in the Application as well as any prior application submitted to the Insurer are true, accurate and complete, and agree that this Policy is issued in reliance on the truth of that representation, and that such particulars and statements, which are deemed to be incorporated into and constitute a part of this Policy, are material to the risk assumed and form the basis of this Policy. No knowledge or information possessed by any Insured will be imputed to any other Insured except for material facts or information known to the person(s) who signed the Application. In the event that any of the particulars or statements in the Application are untrue, this Policy will be void with respect to any Insured who knew of such untruth or to whom such knowledge is imputed.

(J) ACTION AGAINST THE INSURER, ASSIGNMENT, AND CHANGES TO THE POLICY

- (1) No action may be taken against the Insurer unless, as a condition precedent thereto:
 - (a) there has been full compliance with all of the terms and conditions of this Policy; and
 - (b) the amount of the obligation of the Insured has been finally determined either by judgment against the Insured after actual trial, or by written agreement of the Insured, the claimant and the Insurer.
- (2) Nothing contained herein shall give any person or entity any right to join the Insurer as a party to any Claim against the Insurer to determine their liability, nor may the Insured implead the Insurer in any Claim.
- (3) Assignment of interest under this Policy shall not bind the Insurer unless its consent is endorsed hereon.
- (4) Notice to any agent or knowledge possessed by any agent or other person acting on behalf of the Insurer will not cause a waiver or change in any part of this Policy or prevent the Insurer from asserting any right under the terms, conditions and limitations of this Policy. The terms, conditions and limitations may only be waived or changed by written endorsement.

(K) AUTHORIZATION AND NOTICES

It is understood and agreed that the Parent Company will act on behalf of the Company and the Insured Persons with respect to:

- (1) the payment of the premiums;
- (2) the receiving of any return premiums that may become due under this Policy;

NEW YORK DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

This Policy is a claims-made policy.

Coverage under this Policy or any subsequent renewal of this Policy, subject to the terms of the applicable policy, applies only to any "Claim" (as defined herein) made against the Insureds, or specific Wrongful Act, Employment Practices Wrongful Act or Company Wrongful Act reported during the Policy Period of this Policy or the applicable renewal policy. All coverage under this Policy ceases upon Termination of Coverage, except for the Automatic Extension Period unless the Optional Extension Period is purchased.

The below officer of the Parent Company, on behalf of the Insureds, acknowledges that he/she has received information from the Insurer or its agent explaining the limitations and potential gaps in coverage of a claims-made policy and that he/she understands these limitations and potential gaps in coverage.

This Policy includes a 60-day automatic extended reporting period, referred to as the Automatic Extension Period.

This Policy provides the Insured with the option to purchase for an additional premium at least a one-year Optional Extension Period from the termination of this Policy. The premium for the Optional Extension Period is indicated in Item 5. of the Policy's Declarations.

During the first several years of a claims-made relationship between the Insureds and the Insurer, claims-made rates are relatively lower than occurrence rates, and the Insured can expect substantial annual premium increases independent of overall rate level increases, until the claims-made relationships reaches maturity.

AMEND INSURING CLAUSE AND DEPLETION OF UNDERLYING LIMITS SECTION ENDORSEMENT

In consideration of the premium charged, it is agreed that:

- (1) The following definitions are added to Section 14, Policy Definitions:

"Underlying Policy" means a policy scheduled in Item 4(A) or Item 4(B) of the Declarations (or a policy of the same insurer that replaces or renews any such scheduled policy during the Policy Period);

"Underlying Insurer" means the insurer(s) of each respective Underlying Policy.

- (2) Section 1, Insuring Clause, is deleted and replaced with the following:

The Company shall provide the Insureds with insurance during the Policy Period excess of the Underlying Limit. Coverage hereunder shall attach only after the Underlying Insurers and/or, subject to paragraph (3) of this endorsement, the Insureds, shall have paid in legal currency the full amount of the Underlying Limit for such Policy Period. Coverage hereunder shall then apply in conformance with the terms and conditions of the Primary Policy as amended by any more restrictive terms and conditions of any other policy designated in Item 4(B) of the Declarations, except as otherwise provided herein.

- (3) Section 3, Depletion of Underlying Limit is deleted and replaced with the following:

In the event of exhaustion of the Underlying Limit by reason of the Underlying Insurers and/or the Insureds, paying in legal currency loss which, except for the amount thereof, would have been covered hereunder, this Policy shall continue in force as primary insurance, subject to its terms and conditions and any retention applicable to the Primary Policy, which retention shall be applied to any subsequent loss in the same manner as specified in the Primary Policy.

If the Insureds have for any reason (other than the financial impairment or insolvency of an Underlying Insurer) contributed to the payment of a loss which:

- (i) would otherwise be covered under this Policy;
- (ii) payment for such loss is sought under any Underlying Insurance together with this Policy; and
- (iii) such contribution to the payment of loss by the Insureds together with any payment by the Underlying Insurers exhausts the Underlying Limit, then the amount of the limit of liability of this Policy that would otherwise be available for payment of such loss shall, at a minimum, be reduced by the highest percentage by which the limit of any Underlying

Policy was reduced as a result of such payment by the Insureds. However, the limit of liability of this Policy shall only be reduced by the amount paid by the Company for such loss unless otherwise agreed to by the Insureds and the Company.

The title and any headings in this endorsement/rider are solely for convenience and form no part of the terms and conditions of coverage.

All other terms, conditions and limitations of this Policy shall remain unchanged.

NEW YORK AMENDATORY ENDORSEMENT

In consideration of the premium charged, it is agreed that:

- (1) If judgment against any person or entity entitled to coverage under the policy remains unsatisfied thirty (30) days after the serving of notice of entry of judgment upon such person or entity (or his, her or its attorney) and upon the Company, then, except during a stay or limited stay of execution against such person or entity on such judgment, an action may be maintained against the Company under the policy for the amount of such judgment. Nothing herein is intended, however, nor shall it be construed, to obligate the Company to make any payment it would not otherwise be obligated to make under the terms, conditions, limitations and endorsements of the policy, or to pay any Loss in excess of the then-available Limit of Liability under the policy.
- (2) Notice of any claim or of any circumstances which may give rise to a claim, whether by or on behalf of any person or entity entitled to coverage under this policy or by or on behalf of any claimant against any such person or entity, will be deemed written notice to the Company if given to any licensed agent of the Company in the State of New York, with particulars sufficient to identify the person or entity entitled to coverage.
- (3) Failure by any person or entity entitled to coverage under the policy to give any notice required to be given within any prescribed time will not invalidate any coverage that would otherwise have been available if it is shown that (a) it was not reasonably possible to give such notice within the prescribed time, and (b) notice was given as soon as reasonably possible.
- (4) Section 12. Policy Termination is deleted and replaced with the following:
"Policy Termination
12. This policy shall terminate in accordance with the following provisions:
 - (a) The Parent Organization may cancel this policy at any time by written notice stating when thereafter such cancellation is to be effective. Except as set forth in 12.(g) below, the Company may cancel this policy only for non-payment of premium, and only by delivering or mailing to the Parent Organization, with a copy to the agent or broker of record, if any, written notice stating when, not less than fifteen (15) days thereafter, such cancellation will become effective and stating the reason for such cancellation. Proof of mailing of such notice will be sufficient proof that the notice was given and this policy will terminate at the date and hour specified in such notice.

- (b) The Company will refund the unearned premium computed at the customary short rate if this policy is cancelled by the Parent Organization.
- (c) The Company may
 - (i) non-renew this policy, or
 - (ii) condition its renewal upon a change in limits, change in the type of coverage, reduction of coverage, increased deductibles or retentions or addition of exclusions, or upon increased premiums in excess of ten percent (10%) of the expiring rate (exclusive of premiums commensurate with insured value added subsequent to issuance of this policy or at the request of the Parent Organization or as a result of experience rating or retrospective rating);
 - (iii) condition its renewal upon requirements relating to the Underlying Insurance, in which event the conditional renewal notice shall be treated as an effective notice of nonrenewal if such requirements are not satisfied as of the later of the Expiration Date in ITEM 5 of the Declarations or sixty days after the mailing or delivery of such notice;"

by mailing or delivering to the Parent Organization, at least sixty (60) days but not more than one hundred twenty (120) days before the end of the Policy Period as set forth in Item 5 of the Declarations, written notice containing the specific reason or reasons for non-renewal or conditional renewal, and setting forth the amount of any premium increase and the nature of any other proposed changes. Any notice of non-renewal will advise the Parent Organization of any rights to coverage and the duration thereof. Copies of notices required under this paragraph will also be mailed or delivered to the authorized insurance agent or broker of record, if any. This requirement will not apply when the Parent Organization or an agent or broker authorized by such entity has mailed or delivered written notice that this policy has been replaced or is no longer desired. If the Company provides notice of non-renewal and subsequently extends the Policy Period for ninety (90) days or less, no additional notice of non-renewal will be required.

- (d) If before the end of the Policy Period as set forth in Item 5 of the Declarations the Company provides an incomplete or late conditional renewal notice, coverage hereunder will remain in effect on the same terms and conditions and at the lower of the current rates or the rates for the prior period until sixty (60) days after proper notice is mailed, unless the Parent Organization elects to cancel sooner; provided, however, that if the Parent Organization elects to accept the terms, conditions and rates of the conditional renewal notice and renews this policy on that basis, such terms, conditions and rates will govern upon expiration of such sixty (60) day period.
- (e) If before the end of the Policy Period as set forth in Item 5 of the Declarations the Company fails to provide timely or substantially complete notice of non-renewal or conditional renewal, coverage will remain in effect on the same terms and conditions as this policy for another Policy Period at the lower of the proposed or existing Policy Period premium rates.
- (f) The Limit of Liability set forth in Item 3 of the Declarations will not be increased by any non-renewal or conditional renewal notification requirements except that it will be increased in proportion to the extension of the policy.
- (g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this policy, this policy may be cancelled by the Company for acts or omissions by the Parent Organization or its representative constituting fraud or material misrepresentation in obtaining the policy or in presenting a claim under the policy. Such cancellation will be with respect solely to the coverage afforded under this policy for the Underlying Insurance under which the fraud or material misrepresentation occurred. Written notice stating when, not less than fifteen (15) days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective, will be mailed or delivered to the Parent Organization at the last address known to the Company and its authorized agent or broker, if any. Such notice shall state the specific reason(s) for the cancellation. Proof of mailing is sufficient proof that the proper notice has been given."

- (5) The bankruptcy or insolvency of the Insureds, or the Insureds estate(s), shall not relieve the Company of its obligations nor deprive the Company of its rights under this policy.
- (6) It is hereby understood and agreed that, notwithstanding anything in the policy to the contrary, with respect to such insurance as is afforded by the policy, the terms of the policy, as respects coverage for operations in the State of New York, shall conform to the coverage requirements of the applicable insurance laws of the State of New York, or the applicable regulations of the New York Insurance Department; provided, however, that the Company's Limit of Liability, as set forth in Item 3 of the Declarations, shall be excess of the limits of liability of any Underlying Insurance, or self-insurance, as stated in Item 3 of the Declarations, or in any endorsement attached hereto.
- (7) The policy will be deemed to have been amended to the extent necessary to effect the purposes of this Amendatory Endorsement.

The regulatory requirements of this Amendatory Endorsement shall supersede and take precedence over any provisions of the policy or any endorsement to the policy, whenever added, that are inconsistent with or contrary to the provisions of this Amendatory Endorsement, unless such policy or endorsement provisions comply with the applicable insurance laws of the State of New York.

2 THE COURT: Please be seated.

3 All right. My recollection, if I
4 left something out I'll have to go back in and get 5 some more papers, but my recollection is that 6 there are three decisions I have to read into the 7 record: One, the schedules; two, exclusivity; and 8 three, the D&O insurance issue.

9 Was there anything else that I
10 reserved on this morning?

11 All right. I'll deal first with 12 exclusivity and then I'll read a decision with 13 respect to the D&O. And when I deal with 14 exclusivity, I'll deal as well with the schedules.

15 Cause exists to extend the Debtors
16 exclusive periods as to all the Debtors.

17 With respect to ENA, the Court will
18 do the following: One, extend ENA's exclusive
19 period to August 31st, 2002; two, sua sponte
20 expand the ENA Examiner's role to that of the 21 facilitator of a plan in the ENA case and direct 22 him to file a report regarding the status of those 23 efforts including a recommendation as to any 24 further extension of ENA's exclusivity; three,
25 such report shall be filed on or before July 26,

1 ENRON CORP., ET AL.,
2 2002.

3 With respect to the other Enron
4 Debtors, the exclusive period is extended as 5 requested by the Debtor and the Committee for the 6 six-month period sought.

7 With respect to the schedules, the 8 Court grants the Debtors' request for the 9 additional 60 days and the related relief sought.
10 And the Debtor is to serve an order with respect
11 to both of those issues, and obviously settle it
12 upon the ENA Examiner with respect to the 13 exclusivity issue.

14 Regarding the AEGIS motion and the 15 outside directors. Concerning the motions filed
16 by AEGIS and the outside directors to lift the 17 automatic stay to allow AEGIS to pay amounts under 18 the AEGIS D&O Policy and the AEGIS Fiduciary and 19 Employee Benefit Liability Policy, first, as set 20 forth by the Movants, their motion to lift the 21 stay is the procedurally correct method to have 22 this matter presented to the Court.

23 Therefore, currently at issue is 24 the payment of the defense costs incurred by the 25 officers and directors.

1 ENRON CORP., ET AL.,

2 The D&O Policy provides for
3 coverage of the directors and officers,
4 indemnification coverage for the Debtor, and
5 entity coverage for the Debtor.

6 Pursuant to the terms of the D&O
7 Policy, the directors have a right to advancement
8 of defense costs under a priority of payments
9 endorsement.

10 The Debtors' entity coverage and 11 its indemnification coverage are expressly 12 subordinated to the rights of the directors and 13 officers under the AEGIS D&O policy.

14 As the Debtors' property rights are
15 defined by state law, it is that law that governs
16 the contractual obligation; thus, any directors
17 and officers currently due defense costs covered 18 by the policy must be paid from the proceeds of 19 the policy first. The Debtors are then entitled
20 to have their own claims for defense costs paid.

21 The Debtors note the importance of 22 providing the officers and directors with this 23 type of coverage. The Debtors assert that the 24 Debtor, itself, is entitled to currently-due 25 defense costs and will seek payment once the

1 ENRON CORP., ET AL.,
2 directors and officers receive payments for the
3 amounts currently due them.

4 With respect to the payment of 5 officers and directors' defense costs, to the 6 extent that any such payments would negatively
7 impact the Debtors' interest in the proceeds of 8 the D&O policy, that result is dictated by the 9 negotiated terms of the policy.

10 As certain officers and directors
11 may have present rights to payment of defense
12 costs, the fact that certain parties may in the 13 future assert claims and potentially become
14 entitled to payment from the insurance policies
15 does not preclude those who are currently entitled
16 to payment from receiving it.

17 In any case, the parties are bound
18 by the contractual provisions of the policy. The 19 Debtors' interest in the policy is limited by its 20 contractual provisions including a priority
21 advancement and payment obligations contained in 22 those policies. The Court cannot rewrite the 23 provisions of the contract.

24 The Objectants acknowledge the
25 terms of the contract. Some of the Objectants

1 ENRON CORP., ET AL.,
2 argue that because AEGIS and the outside directors
3 are seeking to invoke this Court's jurisdiction
4 concerning the lifting of the stay, that gives 5 this Court leeway to set conditions upon which the 6 stay would be lifted. However, in this case, any 7 such action would result in changing the terms of 8 the contract.

9 The Court finds that, while
10 exercising jurisdiction concerning the issue of 11 lifting the stay, it should not exercise
12 jurisdiction over the terms of the contract and 13 will not interfere with those terms.

14 Under the AEGIS Fiduciary Policy,
15 the coverage afforded the relevant Debtors is 16 co-extensive with the coverage afforded the 17 individual insureds. However, that policy
18 provides a special $10 million fund earmarked for 19 defense costs.

20 Payment from that fund will protect 21 the coverage that is available for payment of 22 settlements and judgements. Moreover, payment
23 from the special funds requires written approval
24 from the Debtor. These two aspects protect the 25 Debtors' interest.

1 ENRON CORP., ET AL.,

2 In addition, the Debtors have
3 referenced the estates' interest in having
4 individual defendants vigorously defend themselves
5 in light of the potential for vicarious liability.

6 The Debtors also have asserted that
7 the payment of the individual claimants' defense
8 cost from the special $10 million fund should not 9 limit the availability of proceeds that may be 10 required by the Debtor.

11 Based upon the pleadings filed and 12 the record of this hearing, the Court finds that 13 because of the entity coverage, the stay is 14 implicated. However, the Debtors' interest appear
15 minimal.

16 Moreover, the Debtors' interest
17 should not be expanded by this Court. They should 18 receive no greater protection than their contract
19 rights afford them.

20 The Court finds cause to lift the 21 stay and grant the motion to permit the parties to 22 exercise their contractual rights under the D&O
23 Policy.

24 In addition, the Court grants the 25 motion to lift the automatic stay to the extent

1 ENRON CORP., ET AL.,
2 that the individual insureds and the Debtors may 3 exercise their contractual rights against the 4 $10 million special fund portion of the Fiduciary
5 Policy.

6 The Movants shall settle an order
7 upon the appropriate parties.

8 We will begin again, I think, at 9 2:30. Thank you.
